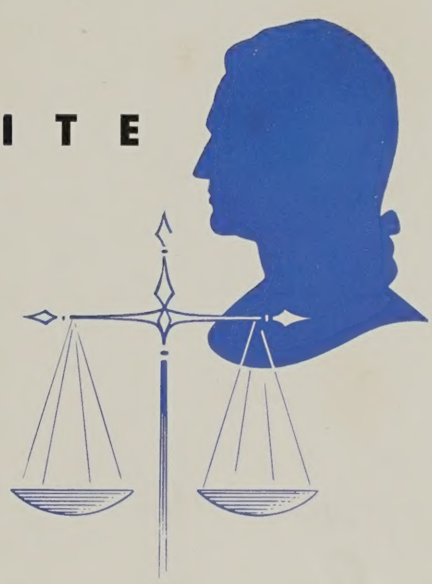
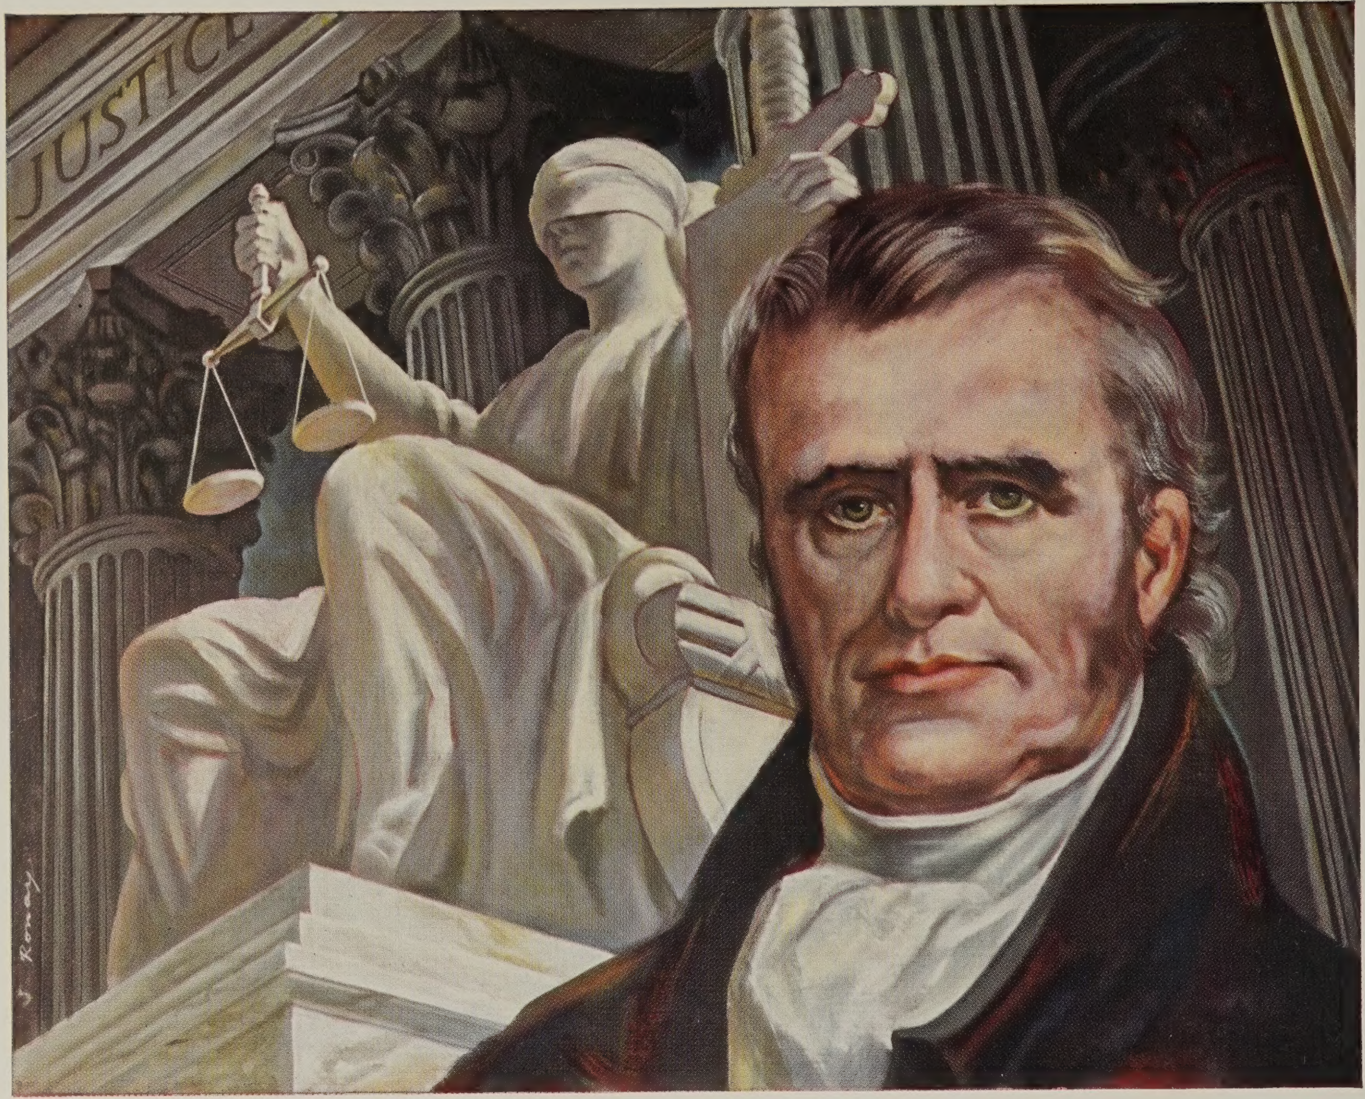
THE MARSHALLITE 1955

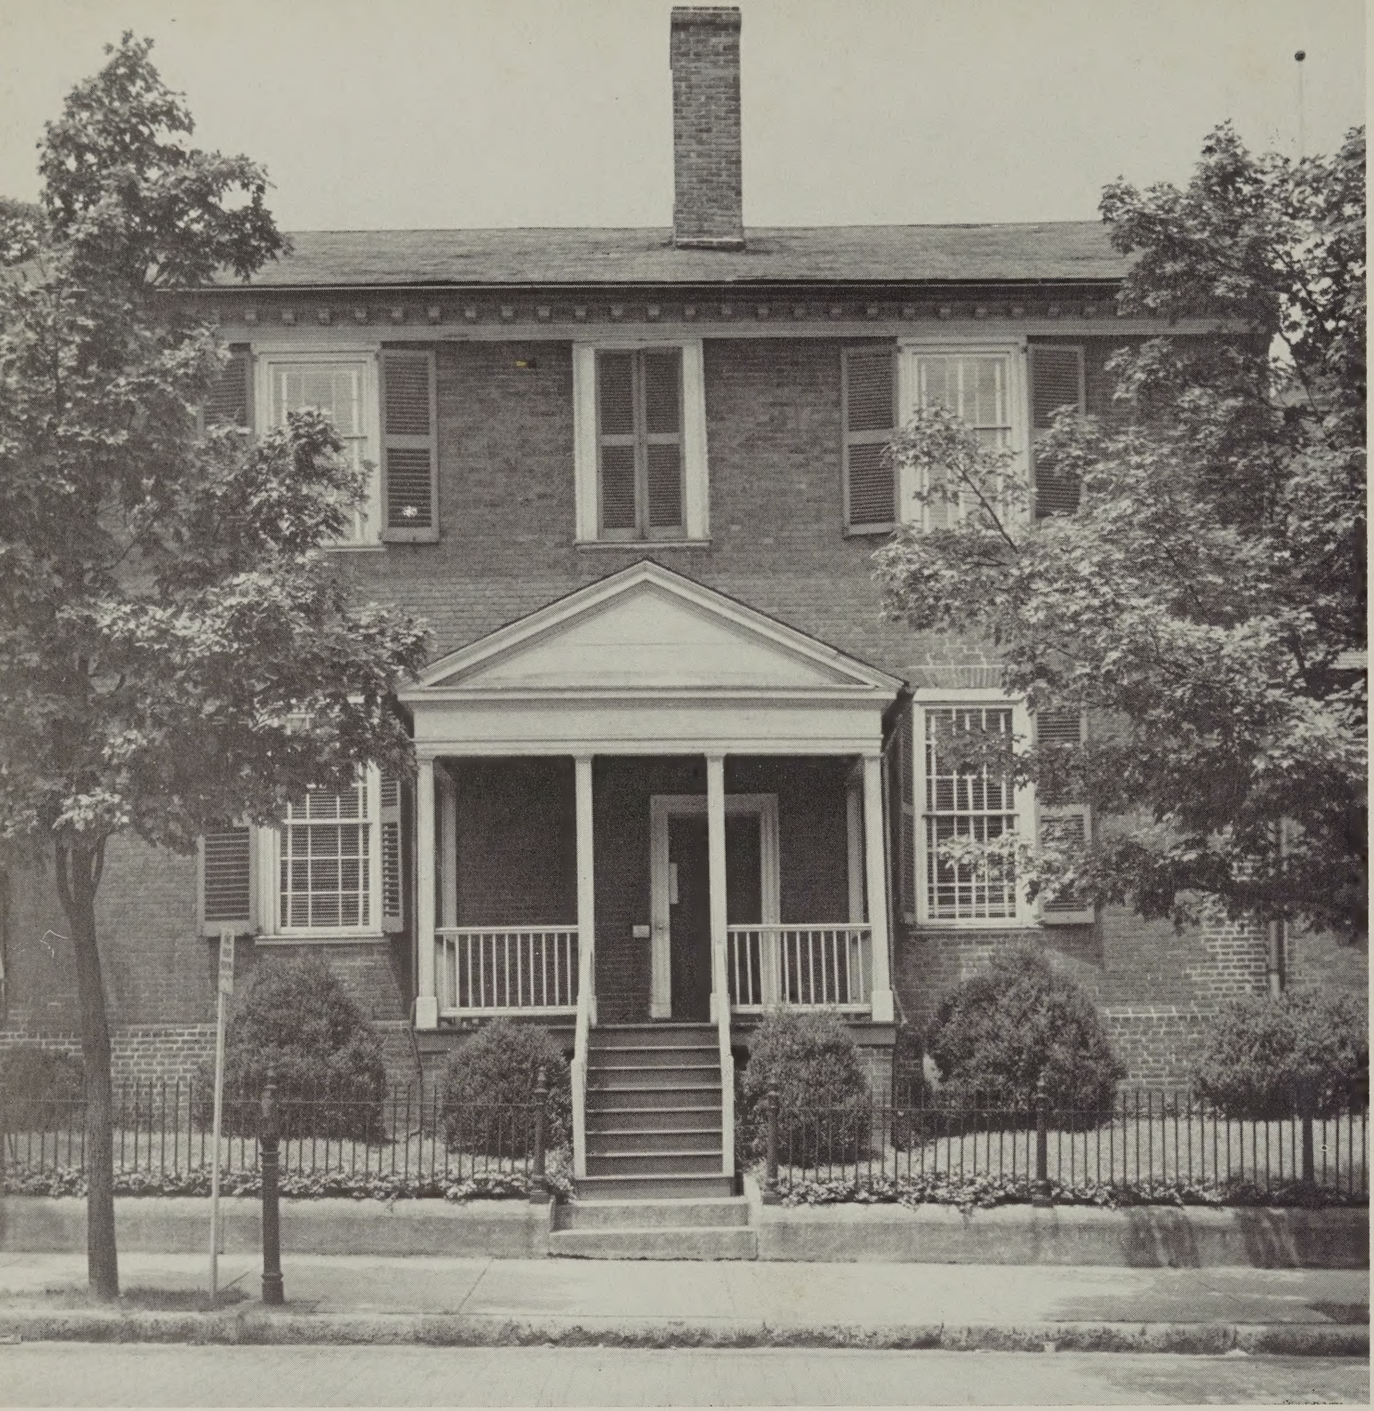




John Marshall, the fourth chief justice of the Supreme Court, began his life on September 24, 1755, in Fauquier County, Virginia. His rise to fame as a lawyer came after years of study in the profession of law. He faithfully served his country by enforcing its laws. In 1801 John Marshall was appointed chief justice by President John Adams. His term as the presiding justice of the Supreme Court is the longest in history—thirty-four years. John Marshall's term was interrupted by his untimely death on July 6, 1835, resulting from a stagecoach accident.

THE MARSHALLITE

ANNUAL PUBLICATION OF JOHN MARSHALL HIGH SCHOOL, RICHMOND, VIRGINIA



Home of Chief Justice John Marshall

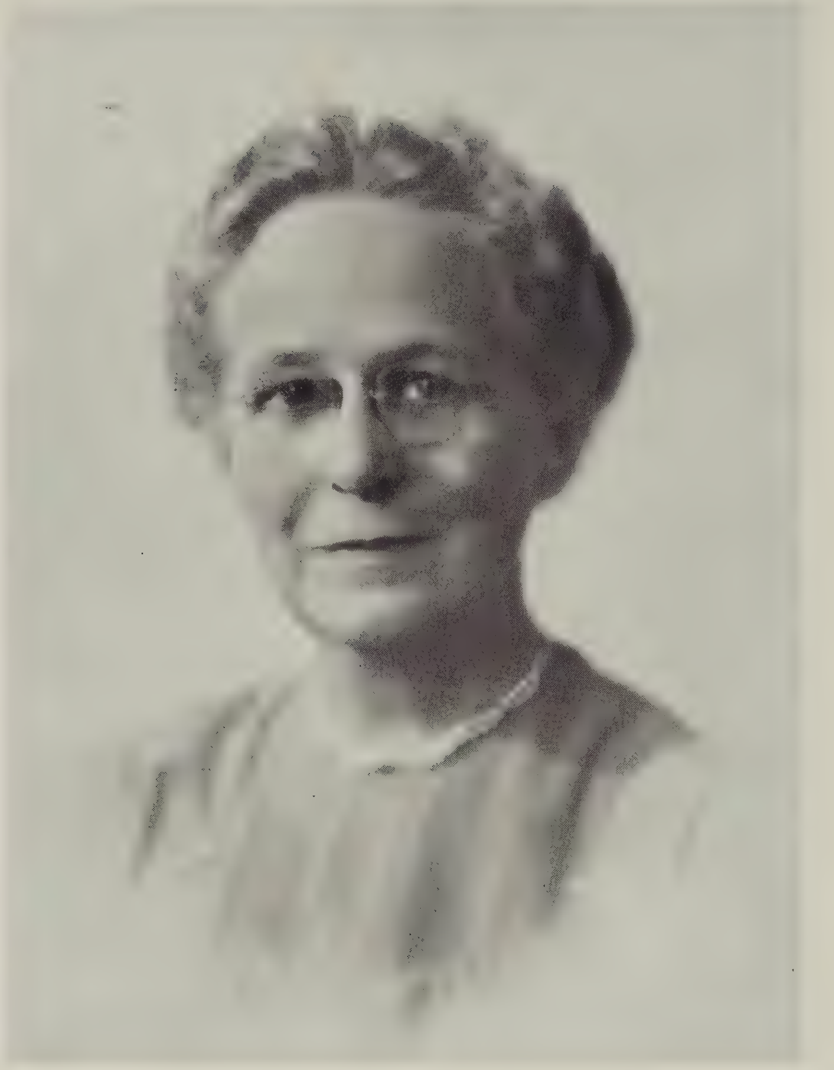
Foreword . . .

Exactly two centuries ago a man was born who stood strongly for two principles of the highest importance—justice and tolerance. John Marshall's era was as troubled as ours is today. However, he met the struggles of the day with confidence; and his judicial decisions made laws that still hold true.

As our year coincides with the two-hundredth birthday of this jurist for whom our school is named, it is fitting that his life be the theme of our yearbook.

May we ever strive to be worthy of being called graduates of John Marshall High School, whose name is a symbol of honor, integrity, and high ideals.

John Marshall High School



In appreciation of her efforts to prepare students for the business world, we, the Senior Class of 1955, are proud to dedicate our annual to Mrs. Lillie P. Ellett.

During her thirty years at John Marshall she has been a pleasant inspiration to all who came in contact with her.

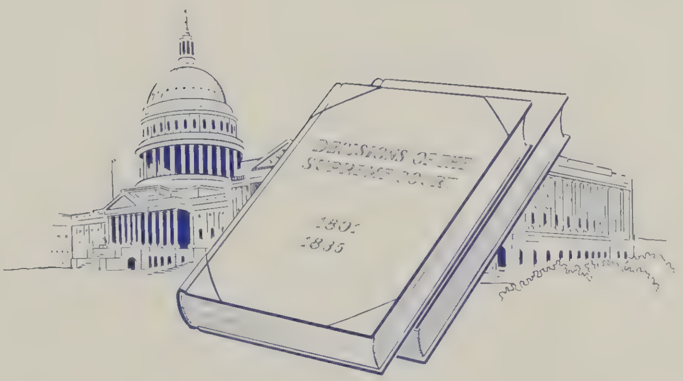
ROLL CALL



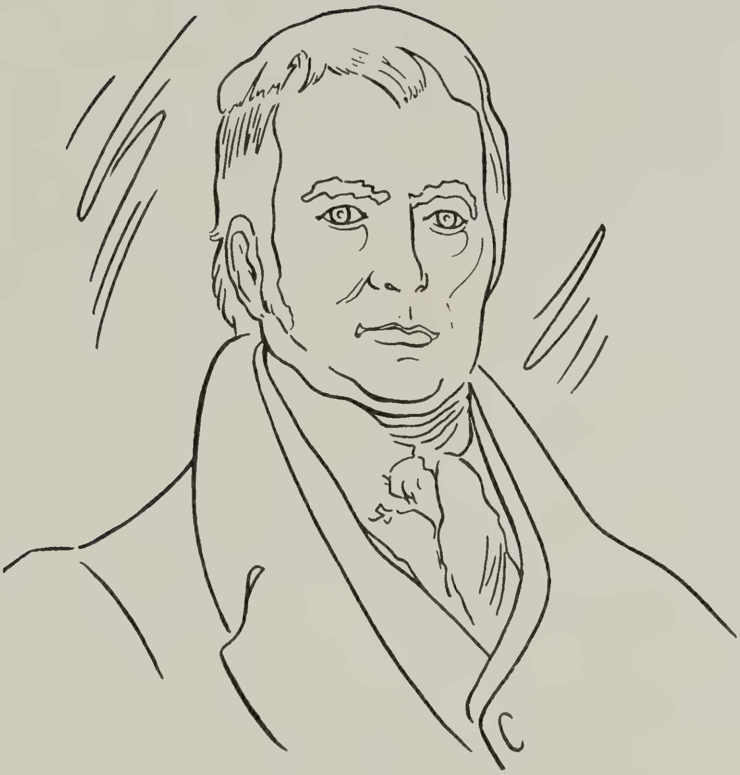
DECISIONS OF THE
SUPREME COURT
1801
1835

* * *

John Marshall's fame as a chief justice of the Supreme Court was due largely to his education in law. He was first taught by his father, a lover of literature and history, then by a tutor. John Marshall attended the Campbell School in Westmoreland County and later went to William and Mary, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Although his formal education ceased here, he didn't stop learning.

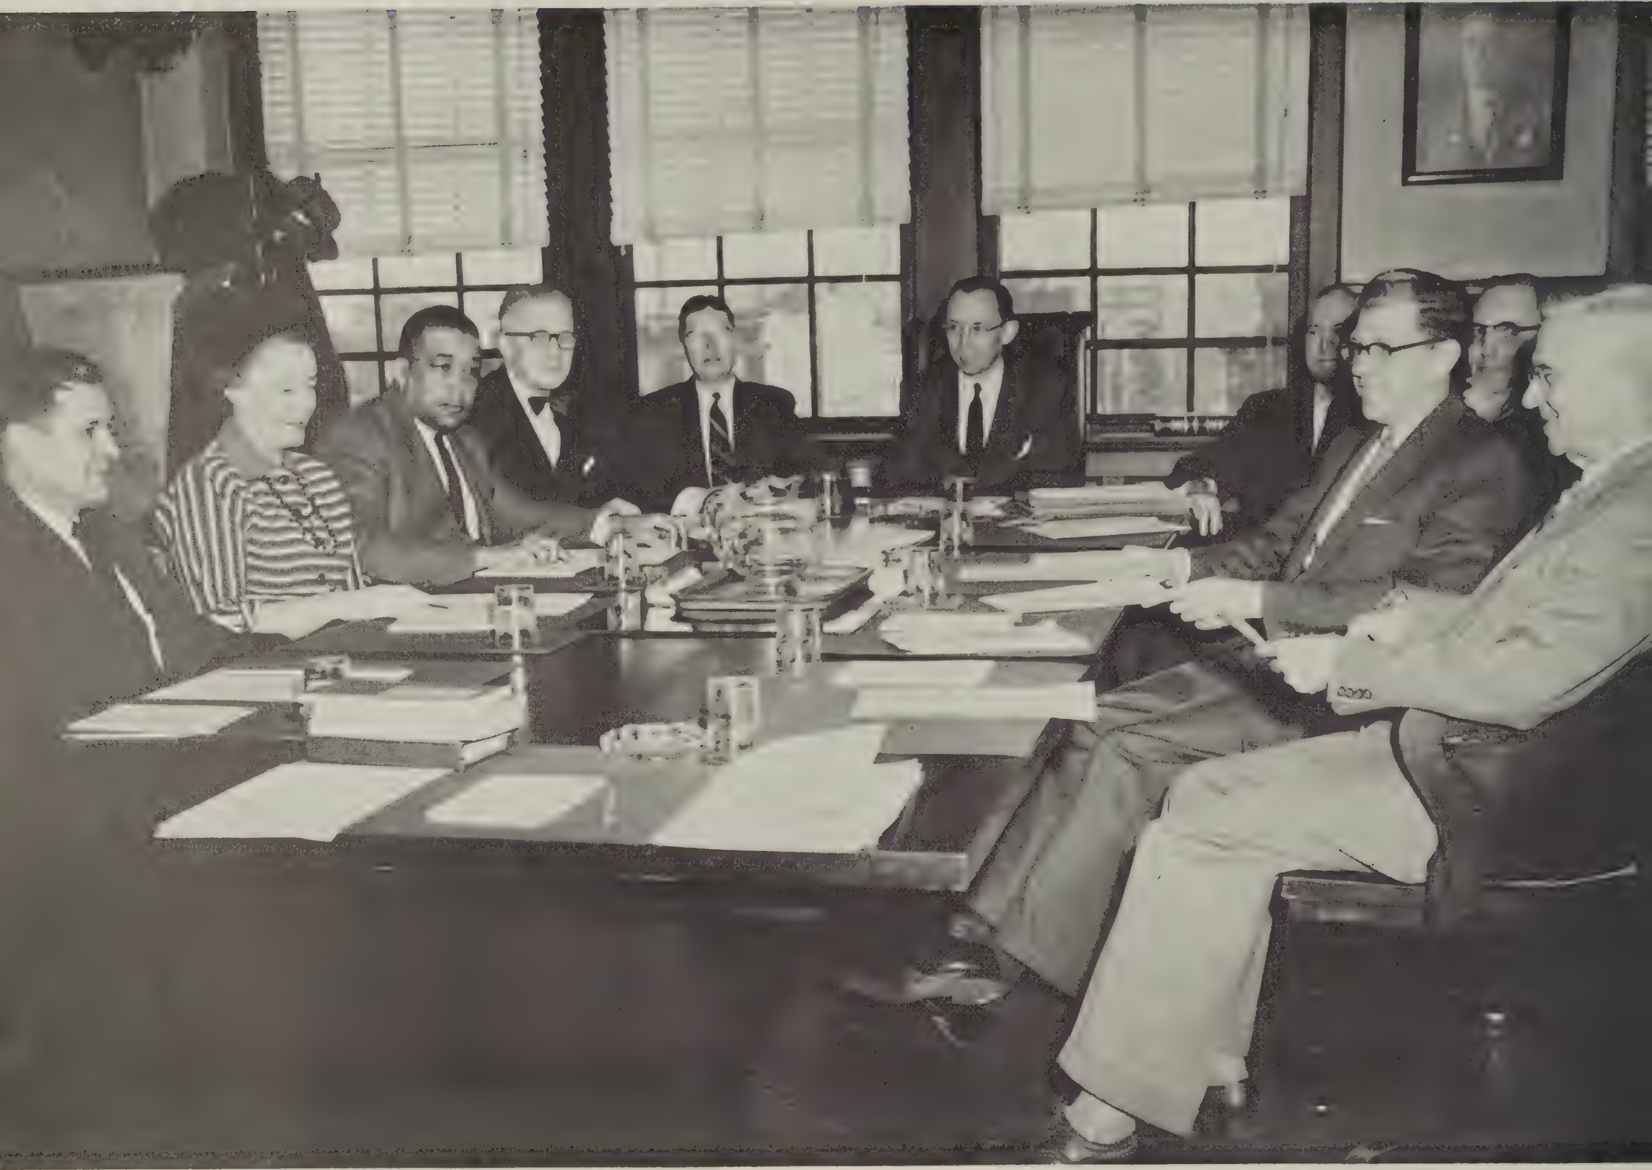
It is our duty as seniors who have been helped by our years of schooling to face the future with the same longing for a rich, full life that made John Marshall a dynamic personality.

In the following pages will be found those teachers and friends who have aided us on our way.



The School

The School Board and Administrative Staff



THIS is a typical monthly picture of the Richmond School Board. The making of school laws, the interpreting of regulations, and the welfare of today and tomorrow's school children; all of this is the business of members of the board. Their lot is not an easy one, but with the aid of school principals and counselors they help make the life of each student a better one.

Members of this important organization are: Lucien D. Adams, Assistant Superintendent; Mrs. Kenneth F. Lee, Board Vice-Chairmen; Booker T. Bradshaw, Board Member; Carlisle Davis, Board Member; H. I. Willett, Superintendent; Lewis F. Powell, Jr., Board Chairman; John F. Showalter, Board Clerk; Henry M. Eubank, Accounting Director; Edward C. Peple, Board Member; W. H. Deierhoi, Assistant Superintendent.

MAY DAY

For many years at John Marshall it has been the custom to celebrate May Day with all the pomp and ceremony due this occasion.

On May 4, the Girls' Athletic Association sponsored the activities of the day. This year the theme was the ever-popular fairy tale, Cinderella.

Reigning over the event was Beverly Clarke, May Queen, and Janice Glover, Maid of Honor. The princesses, all seniors, were Audrey Lowery, Doris Estes, Janice Dowdy, Joyce Rivers, Jean Keele, and Emily Babb.

Representing the other grades were Ann Estes, Rhoda Lush, Andrea Murray, Frances Newman, Peggy Eaves, Ann Jenkins, Anita Jackson, Sylvia McJilton, Stuart Ann Estes, Roberta King, Connie Collie, and Molly Ramsey.

Clubs and organizations, through aims and ideals, have influenced men's lives; and, in the same way, men have influenced certain organizations.

John Marshall became a Mason in a Military Lodge during his service in the Continental Army. In 1793 and 1794 he served as the 6th Grand Master of Masons in Virginia.

The organizations here at John Marshall have enriched and filled our past four years with pleasant friendships and associations.

The John Marshall Student Association is the body through which students and faculty work to improve the school. It is made up of the entire student body. The executive committee carries out the work of the association.

With the help of Miss Arnita Raffo and Mrs. Mary J. Warinner, faculty sponsors, the Student Association has been successful in its work for the year.

In the spring election, the student body voted for officers and members of the executive committee. Students were elected on the basis of their willingness to work, their previous school activities, and their dependability.

The executive committee meets twice a month and functions as a commission type of government under the following commissions: Assembly, Cafeteria, Service Awards, School Spirit, Research, Bulletin Boards, Health and Safety, School-Community Relations.

During the '54-'55 term, the association sold pencils with game schedules on them, and blue and white beanies. Pep rallies were held each morning before games. To help increase school spirit, buses were chartered for out-of-town games. To honor the dead of World War I and II, the Student Association contributed two memorial wreaths at the school Armistice Day program. At Thanksgiving, each homeroom prepared a food basket. Members of the Student Association were hosts to the Miller and Rhoads Foreign Student Forum in February. At the beginning of each term, the association held an orientation assembly for new students.

A Christmas tree was decorated by the Student Association in the hall of the J. M. building. Representatives were sent to the junior high schools to speak on student activities. Members of the executive committee fingerprinted the seniors for the purpose of identification in case of a national emergency.

The Christian Youth League, organized in 1938, has just completed a very successful year. The membership has been large, representing a good cross section of the churches of Richmond.

The theme, "Trustees of To-morrow," was chosen by the program committee as a basis for the discussions held at the weekly meetings of the league. Members are proud of their new organ and very grateful to Dr. Dixon, who made it possible for them to have it.

The League held its first dance at Highland Park Community House on January 27th. All who came had a really good time.

At the Annual banquet of the League, held in May, the officers for next year were dedicated.

A quill and scroll have been used by writers since ancient Roman days to record great happenings and literary works. To a member of the international honor society for high school journalists, the name Quill and Scroll signifies literary achievement, much higher and more exacting than that of the average journalist.

On January 10, 1955, there was a special assembly to introduce the new members of the National Honor Society and Quill and Scroll, but, to the dismay of the embryo journalists, their audience left the auditorium after seeing the Honor Society ceremony. To many students of John Marshall, the members of Quill and Scroll are a complete mystery.

The members of Quill and Scroll work on one of the three student publications, The Record, The Marshallite, or The Monocle. Any candidate for membership may work on more than one publication, which many do. Most of the staff members of the publications work with the goal of Quill and Scroll in their sights.

The John Marshall chapter of Quill and Scroll began in 1930 as part of an international honor society for high-school journalists. Since its beginning the chapter has accepted more than 600 members. The J.M. society has twenty-one new members, who work on different publications.

To become a member of the society, a student must rank in the upper third of his class, must have done distinctive work on a publication, must be recommended by the publication adviser, and must be accepted by the chapter sponsor, Mr. Ernest W. Mooney, and the executive secretary of Quill and Scroll, Mr. Edward Nell.

The National Honor Society

Under the direction of Dr. C. Patrick Ely, the National Honor Society received its charter in 1939 and began its scholastic work. Last term thirty-eight members were added, making a total membership of 717. Miss Wilhelmina Wright is sponsor.

To be a member of the Honor Society, a student must have an average of 90 per cent or above. He must also fulfill the qualifications for character, leadership, and service.

The Honor Society decided not to be solely an honorary group this term. Various committees were appointed such as the Skit Committee, Art Committee, Survey Committee, Publicity Committee, and Theme Committee. A committee was also appointed to find ways to improve the honor system. It was the job of this committee to publicize and to promote honesty in all phases of school life, thus making the students more conscious of its presence. Each member served on at least one committee. The members wrote and acted out a skit in assembly in an effort to show the students how honesty affects their everyday lives. The Honor Society also had Dr. Peple to speak to the students on his ideas of honesty and how they could be carried out.

The Honor Society had its annual picnic in the spring at Forest Hill Park, where the traditional hotdogs and mustard were devoured, after which games were played for the rest of the afternoon. Toward the latter part of May a luncheon was given for the members, with a former member of the society for the speaker.

Every member of the Honor Society pledges not only to uphold the standards of the society, but to make them the standards of his school and of his life. Being invited into this society is the highest honor that this school can award.

"Hearts and Minds together"

If anyone walked by room 2C at recess or the sixth period, he probably heard a buzzing sound. It wasn't a stuck record, but an enthusiastic staff proof-reading or discussing what was to go where in the annual. The staff has worked hard and long to trace the history of the year for the seniors, and hopes that the most enjoyable events have been recaptured.

The editor, Royce Crowe, with the fine co-operation of the rest of the staff, has endeavored to make this publication better than any other one. It was a thrilling moment when the members of the staff discovered that they could use a colored picture in the front of the annual.

To work with Mrs. Blankenship, our sponsor, has been a joy and a pleasure because of her originality, her willingness to work, and the donation of her time and effort to make this annual a success.

Shirley Green, business manager, saw to it that the business staff brought in the ads early. This kept Mr. Arnold, business adviser, from pulling out his hair.

Each staff member who brought in at least sixty dollars worth of ads and had the other qualifications became a member of Quill and Scroll.

"Let's Sail Away With TJ" was the theme of the patriotic float of the three publications which participated in the parade before the JM-TJ annual football game.

Mrs. Blankenship and Jeannette Swoope represented the staff at the S. I. P. A. convention, which was held in Lexington in April.

The planning, proof-reading, gluing, and final production of the book ended; the members of the staff attended a banquet held at the Wakefield Grill. All the work had not been done in vain—there was a basket of fried chicken for everyone.

The fall term started with a small staff. Monocle members campaigned for subscribers, and as a result, many homerooms subscribed 100 per cent.

Like a good citizen, The Monocle backed projects such as the Junior Red Cross, the Community Chest, and the March of Dimes Polio Campaign.

Late in the fall term, the new staff, which was considerably larger, was announced. This staff took over the publication for the spring term with the intention of doing a better job than any done previously in the twenty-six years of The Monocle's career.

Forty-six years ago John Marshall students received their first copy of the school's first publication, The Record. The purpose of the magazine was and still is to encourage the literary efforts of students.

Marshallites have filled the two issues of the past year with fine stories, essays, and poems. From the staff comes a vote of sincere thanks to all the students who have contributed to The Record, and all the teachers and students who have subscribed to it. Without their help, there would be no magazine.

This year The Record began something new to encourage literary effort. A trophy, henceforth to be known as the Edgar Allan Poe Memorial Trophy, was awarded for the outstanding contribution to the magazine. The winner, who was announced at the awards assembly in May, had his name inscribed on the trophy, which will remain at John Marshall. Each year it will bear the name of another winner.

In its efforts to please Jayem students, The Record has come forth this year with some especially gruesome stories. However, all types of writing appear. In addition to short stories, essays, and poems, the departments—Exchanges, Each in His Own Tongue, Book Reviews, Editorials, Cadet Notes, and The Walrus Said—give the magazine variety in all subjects.

Every Marshallite has a right to be proud of his school magazine, which has won the All-American Honor Rating of the N. S. P. A. for the years 1943, 1946, 1949, and 1950.

In conclusion, the staff awards a vote of appreciation to Shirley and David for their able leadership. In this the adviser fully concurs.

The Literary Society is a club for students who enjoy good books, movies, plays, and music. The symbol of the society's love for literature, shown on the club pin, is a small sailing vessel wavering against the sky. This signifies that, belonging to the Literary Society of John Marshall, one advances on the sea of adventure and knowledge by discussing books and other fine arts.

Forty-three pupils are now members of the organization. This is the largest membership that the society has had for some time. Students join the Literary Society only upon the request of members and the recommendation of their English teachers. This term the enrollment has included many boys, whom the group has been glad to welcome.

As in former years, the society has enjoyed outside guest speakers, and has presented the traditional corsage to such well-known speakers as Mrs. Fred B. Dixon, the wife of our principal, who reviewed "Farewell, My General," by Shirley Seifert; and Miss Charlotte Moore and Miss Mary Tompkins, who gave a most interesting illustrated lecture about the Audubon Bird Camp off the coast of Maine. A European travel film in color also proved entertaining and instructive.

When the time for the John Marshall-Thomas Jefferson football game arrived, the members made an attractive float for the parade. This necessitated several hours of work, beginning at 7:30 in the morning. Everyone who participated in the task enjoyed the effort.

For a special project, the society decided to do something different at Christmas. Instead of the usual Christmas party, the group played Santa Claus to a girl and boy of six and seven, respectively, who were wide-eyed on Christmas morning when they saw what "Santa Claus" had brought them. Each member enjoyed a deep feeling of satisfaction from this activity.

In February only one member, Nancy Myers, a former president, graduated. She had been a faithful worker and contributed much to the society's welfare. She was presented with a small graduation gift. Because of the large number graduating in June, the group began a membership campaign early in the year to replace the out-going seniors.

Since everyone enjoys fun, parties were given on certain occasions; and the annual spring banquet was held in honor of the graduating members.

Vocational Office Training Class

"Experience is the best teacher"

Teacher-Coordinator............MRS. M. B. MCGINTY

Vocational Office Training is a part-time co-operative program at John Marshall High School offered to senior students who intend to work in an office after graduation. Students particularly skilled in subjects such as typewriting, shorthand, or bookkeeping may work during the terminal semester of their senior year or during both semesters. A minimum of fifteen hours employment a week in an office is required. Students receive one point a semester for classroom instructions, and one point for work experience.

The business co-operates with the co-ordinator by offering the trainee a variety of experiences in the office, acquainting the trainee with rules governing employees, and at intervals discussing trainees progress with the co-ordinator. The employer expects the same high standard of work from the student that is required of other beginning employees.

Vocational Office Training offers the student an opportunity of working in a real job situation. It enables him to gain valuable experience, and to earn while he learns. It assures the graduate of immediate full-time employment upon graduation. Another important feature is that it helps to develop a feeling of confidence in one's own ability.

This program includes units of instruction in office conduct, such as proper work habits, grooming and dress for the office, and responsibility to the employer. Included also are office procedures such as handling the mail, answering the telephone, and receiving callers. In class one is taught the use of office machines, which include the dictaphone, soundscriber, duplicating machines, adding-listing machines, comptometers, rotary calculators, bookkeeping machines and electric typewriters.

All students enrolled in Vocational Office Training are eligible to become members of the John Marshall Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America, a national organization sponsored by the United Business Education Association. Three degrees of active membership—assistant, supervisor, and leader—are based upon achievement and service to the school and to the chapter. FBLA is of value to the student, the teacher, the school, and the community. As students work in their own organizations with proper guidance, they become better citizens, and they make a better school, a better community, and a better America. FBLA teaches and practices democracy.

Vocational Office Training is a program designed for the young people who will be the Business leaders of the future.

The Future Business Leaders of America is a national organization composed of students enrolled in a business subject outstanding in that field.

This organization holds that technical skills are not enough. Simply reading about educational, political, social, civic, and labor organizations cannot prepare young people adequately for intelligent participation. The F.B.L.A. teaches its members how to operate an organization, prevent minority controls, and bring about desirable social, political, and economic changes through organization.

Mr. Arnold, a business teacher in the school, accepted the responsibility this year of being co-sponsor. The F.B.L.A. is proud to have him in addition to the other fine sponsors, Mrs. Mary B. McGinty and Miss Ella B. Rouzie.

The group as a whole contributed to the Christmas Mother fund and prepared a Christmas box for the children's polio ward at Medical College of Virginia.

The "Miss Ideal Secretary" and "Mr. Business Executive" contest created a feeling of competition among the candidates. Each winner was awarded a cup, which was inscribed with the person's name and title.

Each year the John Marshall F.B.L.A. members participate in the Regional Meeting at Mary Washington College and also attend the annual State Convention. This year the chapter president, Royce Crowe, was also president of the Mary Washington Region.

This organization, however, is not always bent on business; it has socials at which members enjoy chatting, singing, playing games, and eating. This year the group had two banquets, a Valentine party, and a senior-day picnic.

The Distributive Education Club is a professional organization open to all students who are majoring in Distributive Education. A D.E. student works on a part-time co-operative retail training program, attending school part of the day and working in distributive occupations (retail, wholesale or service) a minimum of fifteen hours a week. The in-store work experience is considered a laboratory exercise related to classroom instruction. Salesmanship, advertising, retail math, human relation, stockkeeping, speech and merchandise are among the topics covered in the classroom.

The John Marshall D. E. Club is a member of the Distributive Education Clubs of Virginia, which have more than forty school memberships. In turn, all the Virginia clubs belong to DECA—The Distributive Education Clubs of America.

This year various members of the club attended the Annual Area Conference, which was held in Washington, D. C. There were various competitive contests. These included a speech contest on a phase of merchandising, a sales demonstration judging contest, a job interview judging contest, and a display judging contest.

The Annual State Convention was held in Richmond in March. A member of the J.M. D.E. Club attended this convention as representative of the club. The winners of the contests held at the Area Conference competed at this convention.

This year the Annual National Convention of the Distributive Education Clubs of America was held in Richmond in April. The John Marshall Club participated in many of the activities and served as host to the convention.

Perhaps the club is best typified by its diamond-shaped pin and emblem. The four points of the diamond represent vocational competence, economic literacy, social intelligence, and leadership. The wrapped package in the center of the pin signifies a job well done.

Diversified Occupations Training Program

"Part-time job today—Full-time job tomorrow"

President.....................WILLIAM D. HESTER
Vice-President.....................JAN C. JACKSON
Secretary-Treasurer.............CURTIS P. STINSON
D. O. Coordinator................A. E. HARSHAW

The Diversified Occupations Training Program at John Marshall is designed primarily to offer select high school students an opportunity to prepare themselves for a specific trade or industrial occupation of their own choice through part-time employment while still in school.

This program may include any industrial pursuit, skilled or semi-skilled trade, craft, or occupation which directly functions in the designing, producing, processing, assembling, maintaining, servicing, or repairing of any manufactured product. It may also include other occupations which are usually considered technical.

The program operates through a cooperative agreement between employers, students, parents, and the school. Only students in the junior or senior years are eligible. A student meeting the requirements for entrance is permitted to select employment in one of several approved occupations. Employers co-operate with the school, serving as the student's training agency. Much care and thought are given by the co-ordinator and counselor to the satisfactory placement of each student. The student then receives training in the occupation of his choice under actual working conditions, devoting a minimum of three hours a day, five days a week to work on the job. The student devotes three hours a day to school work, receiving one hour of instruction specifically related to his job and two hours of instruction in subjects required for graduation. Credit is granted toward graduation for satisfactory work on the job. In addition, the learner is paid a fair hourly wage by his employer.

Thus the student benefits by getting a practical insight into the world of business and receives valuable training for the occupation of his choice. He will also profit from the opportunity thus provided for attaining desirable attitudes and good work habits.

Through this program the student is enabled to retain his identity with his school group; and, upon graduation, he has earned the necessary credits to enter college if he so desires. He also gains the necessary work experience to enable him to secure full-time employment readily. Records show that a large per cent of the boys and girls completing the program continue as full-time employees with the employers who co-operated in the training.

The John Marshall Key Club is one of the most outstanding clubs of our school. Its existence is made possible through the sponsorship of the Richmond Kiwanis Club and the guidance of Mr. James C. Harwood, Jr., faculty advisor.

The society is one of more than a thousand Key Clubs spread throughout the entire country. This group, which serves both school and students, is composed of thirty-five members who must rank in the upper third of their class, be recommended by a teacher and voted on by the club members.

"PARTIAL TO MARSHALL"

The club assists in many ways to make various school functions and activities successful. Members from the unit sell cokes at the school dances. The club raised money and hired a bus to transport student supporters of the school football team to Charlottesville to see the game with Lane High School. With much work, the club constructed a float to be entered in the festive events at the game with Thomas Jefferson. Christmas cards were sent to all of the John Marshall teachers. For one of its educational services, the organization sponsored films, to which all students were invited.

"KEY TO THE FUTURE"

Activities are planned to build the young men in our society both mentally and spiritually. Four boys from the group attended the 1954 International Convention held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, July 1st, 2nd and 3rd. Two members of the unit attend Kiwanis Club luncheons, which are held every Monday, and give a report on the meetings. At Boys State the club was also well represented.

"THE BREEZE ABOUT THE KEYS"

Besides the many functions undertaken to better the school, the students, and the community, members of the organization find time to enjoy entertaining social get-togethers. The club sweetheart, Pat Tucker, played a large part by sponsoring a trip to Moore's Lake, a Christmas party, and other outings.

The Girls' Athletic Association is an organization that exists for the purpose of promoting better citizenship through good sportsmanship.

Having as many as 150 members representing each grade in John Marshall, the club offers such sports as archery, volleyball, horseback-riding, basketball, swimming, badminton, bowling, and tennis. Points are awarded for each individual's participation in a sport, and are totaled at the end of each year to determine award winners. The G.A.A. emblem is given as the 100-point award; for 300 points, the award is a shield emblem bearing the letters G.A.A.; the highest award of 500 points is a small chenille JM letter.

The Girls' Athletic Association was organized in 1949 by Miss Helen McKenney. Miss Elizabeth Ann Simpson, graduate of Richmond Professional Institute, is now sponsoring the club.

The Girls' Athletic Association also sponsors such activities as May Day, at least one dance for the entire student body, and a Talent Show each year. All these events are eagerly anticipated by club members and other students.

At the end of each term, the G.A.A. has its annual picnic at which officers for the coming year are announced.

Library Staff

Thirty student library assistants have been rendering most valuable service to fellow students and the school. Their duties include aiding others with library problems, routine desk work, checking passes, filing, and other activities. The staff feels that their daily tasks in the library have also aided them personally in acquiring a greater knowledge of books and libraries. The staff holds meetings, at which time library problems are discussed.

The object of the John Marshall Forum Club is to discuss current problems and stimulate interest in them in order to promote good citizenship. This term the programs of the club have been varied. Students who attended Boys and Girls State related their experiences. Miss McCarthy gave us the vicarious pleasure of her European tour. Miss Mary Ribble explained the purpose and work of the Community Chest. Mr. Cheadle, representing Alcoholics Anonymous, told of his helpful organization. Miss Heinrich, our sponsor, who was elected vice-president of the social studies section of the Virginia Education Association, gave an account of her experiences. Also among the speakers was Miss Eilien Edmonson, exchange teacher from England, who gave a vivid description of Christmas in England. Another interesting speaker, Mr. Mooney, sponsor of the school paper, discussed the subject of marriage to members and guests.

The Forum Club has given its members a chance to cultivate and broaden their viewpoints on many subjects.

¡Hola, amigos! That's the friendly greeting you receive when you go to the Don Juan Club. ¿Estamos contentos todos? We hope so, and we try to keep everyone that way with Spanish games and quizzes. Spanish suppers and parties 'content' those who «comen por cuatro.»

Viajes en los caminos de adventura carry the members on journeys to Washington. With big box lunches and a spirit of fun, everyone enjoys himself on that annual trip.

If speakers who talk with a decided Latin accent are what you want to hear, then visit the club sometime. More than likely, there will be someone present who is a native of Cuba, or Mexico, or some Spanish-speaking country.

Fiestas, and siestas, are very important events in the life of all Spanish-speaking people. Our club gives us just the opportunity that we need to become better acquainted with the customs of the people whose language we study.

Making the study of Spanish a pleasure is our job, and we love it.

For the purpose of bringing into closer relationship teachers, students, and parents, the Parent-Teacher-Student Association of John Marshall High School was organized.

An understanding of the courses of study, methods of teaching, and the physical surroundings is essential to intelligent co-operation between home and school and to a correct interpretation of the school to the community.

Two large membership meetings were held this year and the parents were given an opportunity to learn more about the school and the curriculum. The executive committee met bi-monthly; the Principal's advisory counsel, four times; and a study group on "How to Study" was organized.

Drama Class

Teacher: MISS MARY L. PEPLE

Through the efforts of Mr. Charlotte Wheeler DeCourcy and Miss Eva Branch, the class of Drama became a regular part of the speech course in 1938. Room 209 is equipped with a small stage, curtains, lights, a storage room for furniture, and cabinets for small properties and costumes. A book box and file contain the proper number of scripts of nearly 150 plays from which to choose class productions. After a short course in the history of drama, every member of the class is cast for acting. Each member appears in at least four short plays during the term, all rehearsing at once in various parts of the room and on the stage. For the presentation of each play, one day is set aside. Each cast issues a formal invitation to another class, meeting at the same period, to be the audience; and the play is presented, each member of the group being responsible for the committee work necessary to produce a play, such as; costumes, lights, stage, props, make up, set and bulletin board.

The purposes of this course are: the improvement of speech, and practice in leadership, co-operation, independence, poise, responsibility.

Each student keeps a record of the activities of the course in a notebook with pictures and descriptions of costumes through the ages.

Some of the one-act plays used as class work are: The Valiant, The Dear Departed, Holding a Husband, The Boor, They're None of Them Perfect, Where the Cross is Made, Red Carnations, The Girl, The Devil on Stilts, Episodes from Victoria Regina.

The John Marshall Orchestra, under the direction of Albert L. Stoutamire, has carried out a varied program this year. The orchestra, consisting of thirty-two members, has a class each day at the sixth period.

This year the orchestra, the chorus, and the band have worked together to produce a monthly radio program, "Virginia Sings." The orchestra has also participated in special assembly programs for Thanksgiving, Christmas, Armistice Day, and graduation. Other activities that the orchestra took part in this year were playing for the Rotary Club and the Virginia State Congress of Parents and Teachers held at the John Marshall Hotel.

In December, seven of the string players joined other Virginia high school students to participate in the Twelfth Annual State String Orchestra held in Arlington, Virginia. All who attended gained a great deal through this experience.

The highlight of the spring term was the orchestral and choral presentation of the spring concert.

The Choir

This organization meets daily as a regular class. Members are chosen from the voice classes on a basis of seniority, ability, and necessary balance—sopranos, altos, tenors, and basses. The choir, including the Marshallsingers (a group of twelve mixed voices recruited from the choir personnel), performs for school programs, baccalaureate and commencement exercises, for service clubs and other community events.

The choir made four broadcasts over WRVA on the "Virginia Sings" series, gave a concert with the orchestra on March 25, and caroled in the school and at state and city offices during Yuletide. It represents the school and vocal classes whenever needed.

Members of the Boys' Ensemble are chosen from the choir.

The Girls' Chorus

This organization provides an opportunity of singing to talented girls who are unable to schedule voice in a regular period.

The Junior Red Cross got off to an early start by holding an executive committee meeting the day before school opened in September, at which plans for the year were made.

A new committee, headed by Jean Ormand, was formed to help create interest in the annual Junior Red Cross Membership Drive. For the first time in its history, the drive at John Marshall made its $500 goal and exceeded it by $60. Three homerooms collected over $50 each—a record homeroom amount.

Mickey Kerneklian and his crew worked hard collecting paper. To promote paper collection, a red-and-white covered box was placed in each homeroom.

Each Monday afternoon, J. M. students gave their services as volunteer workers at Medical College Hospital, entertaining polio and rheumatic fever patients. Red Cross members also worked at McGuire Hospital and the Red Cross Community House.

Two Jayem girls have been active in city-wide Red Cross work. Audrey Lowery, J. M. Chapter president, was president of the Harwood Council and vice-president of the Richmond Junior Red Cross executive committee. Emily Babb was corresponding secretary of the Harwood Council, an organization consisting of representatives of all Richmond high schools.

Office Aids

"They greet you with a smile"

Office aids are boys and girls chosen by Miss Woody or Mrs. Purvis from study halls to perform certain duties in the office. There are no particular requirements for this job, but if an office aid fails in any subject, he is sent back to his study hall.

Some of the duties of office aids are to answer the telephone, to carry messages to teachers, to sort the mail and to type.

Duties may be simple but aids are kept busy, and everybody does his job.

Ushers

"They'll lead you on your way"

Six girls, chosen by the Assembly Commission to be ushers, arrive early at the auditorium on regular assembly days to let the students and teachers into the auditorium.

The ushers' duties are mainly to keep order in the halls and let students in and out of the assembly when necessary. The audience must have an orderly manner at all times, since their actions largely determine the impression that visitors will have of John Marshall.

2. Our scholarship committee interviewed all the applicants for the 1954 award, agreeing finally that Cadet First Captain E. Allen Brown met the qualifications best.

3. John Marshall Cadet Alumni Association entry in the pre-game parade at the John Marshall-Thomas Jefferson football game.

4. The "day after Thanksgiving" is fast becoming a day we wouldn't want to miss. Last November 26, five hundred persons enjoyed the annual reunion dance at Tantilla Garden. Each year attendance has grown which is a good indication of a successful dance.

John Marshall Evening School

Going to school is a daytime chore for the John Marshall student of 1955. For many an old timer—class of '50, say, or '40, or '30, or even '20—it has become a nighttime pleasure. During the past eight years, more than 721 Jayem graduates have enrolled in the John Marshall Evening School.

In addition to that, more than 294 Tee-Jay diploma-holders have joined their one-time rivals in the further pursuit of learning at the gaily lighted building in the backyard of the home of Chief Justice John Marshall. During these same eight years, 1,959 graduates of other high schools have taken classes by candlelight, so to speak, after a hard day's work—and in the very same classrooms in which day students thought they were having such a tough time.

This sort of thing has been going on ever since John Marshall High School opened its doors. In fact, it was only two years after that momentous date (1911, to be exact) that Mr. W. C. Locker and two teachers started the John Marshall Night School. Before the first session was over, enrollment had soared to almost 1,200 students, with a few more teachers, to be sure. Ever since then the Evening School has been a vital, dynamic factor in the adult education effort of the city.

In addition to the 2,974 high-school graduates who have enrolled in John Marshall Evening School during the past eight years, there has been a sizable group of students who, for one reason or another, never had the chance to graduate from high school. A number of these, lacking only a few points, have earned sufficient credits by evening study to obtain their diplomas from John Marshall, or Thomas Jefferson, or some other high school.

The student body of our evening school, during these past eight years, has included a large number of college graduates. There have been 580 holders of college degrees, and 50 persons who have done graduate work in various universities. There were 449 others who had completed one, two, or three years of college.

So, John Marshall at night, you see, is not a dull, dark, dismal pile of bricks and mortar. It is a structure pulsing with life, energy, enthusiasm.

The present principal of the John Marshall Evening School is Mr. Oscar H. Parrish, one of Dr. Dixon's able daytime assistants.

Interrupting his law study, John Marshall helped to organize and drill a company of volunteers for the Revolution. His career as lieutenant and later as captain in the army was valuable in broadening his understanding of people and governmental problems.

John Marshall High School is especially proud of her fine cadet corps and its commandant, Lieutenant Charles J. Schaefer. The corps is designed to train cadets in leadership, to develop their bodies, and to quicken their minds.

The Honor Court

The Honor System of the John Marshall Corps of Cadets is designed to instill in the individual cadet a true sense of the Corps' motto, "Duty, Honor, Country," and to extend each cadet's desire to develop within himself those attributes accompanying a high degree of honor. Self-respect, pride, and the general consideration for the rights and welfare of others are vital factors in the forming of real character.

In order to achieve the system's goal, each cadet must resolve to implant these standards within himself. Should he fail to do so and encroach upon or appear to violate his honor, the case is brought before the Honor Court. With the seriousness of a cadet's offense in mind punishment is administered, if justified, accordingly. The Court is composed of all commanders, the adjutant, and such others as the Court sees fit to elect by unanimous decision, the total membership not exceeding thirteen.

In any case not covered by the Rules or Standards, in which the honor or character of a cadet, or the honor or well being of the Corps as a whole is in any way involved, the Honor Court considers the act as one reflecting on the code of a gentleman and renders its decision accordingly.

The General Committee

Although the Honor Court's principal purpose is to try cases of honor violations, it also works in conjunction with the General Committee in maintaining the Honor System. The body is composed of all commanders and the individual class officers. The General Committee does not try honor cases, but instead, starts at the very core to prevent any future honor violations by maintaining the proper instruction of each recruit class, and additional instruction of all classes, as may be necessary.

If there is any disagreement as to points of the standards of the Corps not clearly defined, the General Committee is the deciding factor in the case. Cadets failing to uphold these standards, regarding conduct and appearance, are called to account by the group, since it is their duty to see that they are enforced. The reputation which the Corps enjoys as gentlemen is the result of this system.

The members of the General Committee must also accomplish their purpose by personal example, having to display the proper qualifications before receiving membership. It is also the duty of each member of the corps to report all violations of the standards, foregoing all company allegiance wherever it would conflict with the purpose of the General Committee. Lesser duties of the committee are the enforcement of class privileges and new cadet rsstrictions.

The Hop Committee

The Hop Committee is a voluntary group composed of cadets from all companies and all drills. Each job that goes to making the Hop a success is taken care of by a separate committee. Each of these is supervised by a chairman.

The first big problem is the debatable question of the colors of the decorations and a plan for the arrangement of them. These are decided by the vote of the group. Next the various committees plan and carry out each phase of their assigned duties.

When all the tasks have been completed, the haphazard, hectic turmoil turns into an orderly, beautiful picture. The cadets who worked so hard and put so much time in preparing for this big event receive no reward other than the satisfaction in the feeling that they have done their part in making the ball a notable success.

John Marshall, the famous Virginian who became the fourth chief justice of the United States, is not usually considered athletic. This may be attributed to his lack of time, not interest. However, in his few hours he played quoits, a game very similar to horseshoes.

Our school has a fine athletic staff and program. John Marshall offers seasonal sports for both boys and girls. The Justice teams, besides bringing home numerous honors, learn good sportsmanship and a way of clean, healthful living.

Co-Captain

1. Warwick 12-13, Jayem

The Justice gridders lost no time proving that they were not going to repeat last year's losing season by defeating their first foe, a tough Warwick eleven. The close score, 13-12, in no way detracted from the elation of Marshallites over their first football victory in more than a year. Don Goode served as co-captain of the game along with permanent captain Billy Garnett.

2. Granby 23-0, Jayem

Just to prove that the first game was not a fluke, the Big Blue Team beat Granby by a resounding 23-0 score. Co-captain for the game was fleet halfback Dickie Burnette.

3. Highland Springs 33-0, Jayem

Not satisfied with a 23-point victory, Jayem walloped Highland Springs, 33-0, using an almost complete reserve team after the half. Led by co-captain Henry Bryant, the entire team played a terrific game.

4. Manchester 6-0, Jayem

5. Hermitage 0-0

The Panthers from Hermitage High, who ended the season as second team in the state, put the first mar on Jayem's record by holding them to a 0-0 tie. Marshallites were no less proud of their boys who, co-captained by Billy Overman, played outstanding ball.

6. Lane 19-6, Jayem

The Big Blue Team bounced right back into the win column with a 19-6 victory over an underrated Lane High eleven. Game co-captain was Stuart Petree.

7. Hopewell 34-14, Jayem

Joy at John Marshall knew no bounds as the Big Blue Team rolled over a Hopewell High team for the first time in six years to the tune of 34-14. Happy Marshallites hurried back to Richmond and greeted the team with cheers and congratulations upon their arrival. Donny Goodman, who served as co-captain, proved to be the only junior accorded the honor during the year.

8. Alexandria 7-21 Alexandria

The Justices tasted defeat for the first time at the hands of a powerful and vastly underrated team from Alexandria's George Washington High. Though disappointed, Marshallites felt that co-captain Ralph Butler and the entire team had played a fine game.

9. Petersburg 20-0, Jayem

Evidently the Big Blue didn't like being listed in the loser's column, for they left it with a 20-0 victory over Petersburg. Bobby Luck, senior fullback, co-captained the game.

10. Thomas Jefferson 13-14, Teejay

Amid streamers, confetti, cheerleaders, floats, queens, and princesses, Jayem's eleven met their cross-town rivals for the twenty-fourth renewal of their colorful gridiron battle. For three quarters it looked like a black day for Marshallites as the Justices were held scoreless while Teejay racked up fourteen points. Spectators who expected the game to end this way, however, were reckoning without the fight of the Boys in Blue. Catching fire in the fourth quarter, the Justices scored two touchdowns and were prevented from a tie by only one extra point. Pride overshadowed dissapointment for Jayem followers as fans flocked the field to commend co-captain Tommy Greer and all of their boys for their fight, determination, and wonderful come-back.

* * * *

The season's end brought many honors to members of the John Marshall team, the two principal ones being the selection of Don Goode to the All-Southern squad and the awarding of the All-City Most Valuable Player of the Year title to Captain Billy Garnett, whose fighting heart and unbeatable spirit were a source of constant inspiration to the team.

The Justices made a good showing all year in spite of the disadvantage of having no home court. They were visitors throughout the entire season.

Larry Rauppius, Buck Jones, Tommy Davies, and Tommy Murray were missed from the line-up when the team started off with the first game of the season. In spite of this handicap the team was encouraged to make a good showing. It ended the regular season with a record of 15 wins and 6 losses.

Both John Marshall and Thomas Jefferson went to the state tournament, which was held at the new Richmond Arena, with a competitive spirit. Jayem lost to Wilson High by a score of 60 to 42 in the first day of the competition.

Don Goode displayed his talent in basketball by becoming the highest scorer of the year, but Lee Southard wasn't far behind him as the next high scorer.

Honors were brought to the Justices, as Don also made the All-State, All-Central, and All-City teams. Lee Southard and Jimmy Adams made the second-string Central and City teams.

Co-operation was shown by the boys at each game, and much credit is due. The team consisted of good material but was not quite as well balanced as last year's team.

TRACK . . .

Although there are few returning lettermen from last year, Coaches William Goodlow and Howard Hollingsworth hope to build a solid team around them.

Recovering from a two-year victory famine, the team hopes to offer strong resistance this year. Sure competitors include Mickey Kerneklian in the shot-put; Bobby Joyce in the discus; Billy Goode in the high jump; Pat McFaden in the broad jump and dashes; distance men Wilson Brown, John Hebner, and Hampton Harris; hurdlers Stuart Petree and Donny Goodman.

Every afternoon after school the boys can be seen working out in the athletic field, for Coaches Goodlow and Hollingsworth feel that hard work is a "must" for success.

Track is strictly an individual sport, involving no teamwork. The boys know that if they fail, they have no one to blame but themselves. On the other hand, if they succeed, they know their success is due entirely to their own efforts. This knowledge helps the boys to become individualists and to stand on their own two feet.

The team hopes that this year attendance at home track meets will be better than it has been the last two years, for spectators are the heart of every sport.

A trackman's motto might well be:

"If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the race, and the glory that goes with it,
And, what is more, you'll win your letter, son."

The outlook for this year's baseball team is very encouraging. As usual, Coach Tommy Thompson has two deep in nearly every position, a hint to those who underestimate this year's crop.

With co-captains Junie Wyatt, a four-year man, and Jim Adams, all-city shortstop last year, leading the team, a bright or rosy future is in store for the Justices.

Although Harry Lee Goode, Whitey Robertson and Sonny Stewart graduated, eleven lettermen have returned, giving the team a proved and experienced performer in each position.

However, competition is stiff, Jim Adams and Dickie Burnette are battling it out for shortstop, while hard-hitting Henry Bryant is scrapping with Dan Burrows for the second base slot. Behind the plate, big Don Goode, a letterman in all sports except track, is struggling with Red Traylor, a member of last year's B-team and a crackerjack catcher, for the Post I nine that advanced as far as Gastonia in the Legion play offs.

Wyatt and Ed Dunivan seem to have two of the outfield berths sufficiently manned. The other is still open.

At third base, Doug Martin appears to have the nod over two others who need a little more experience.

Lee Southard and Ralph Butler, two mainstays of last year's pitching staff, are back again to help handle the pitching chores. A number of others, including James Reedy, Pete Bowden, Lawrence Hicks, and Mel Rideout, round out the pitching staff.

The returning varsity lettermen for this season were Jeanette Barnhill, Mickey Gale, and Jeannette Talbot. They were joined by Sylvia McJilton, Sue Martin, Pat Southworth, and Jean Stonestreet. From Chandler came two more who joined these veteran J. M. hockey players, Joan Bishop and Nancy Goin. The varsity squad was completed by Barbara Ferguson and Brenda Fisher, both fresh from Bainbridge.

The girls started this season with high spirits, but lost their first game with Manchester 4 to 2.

They won their second game with Petersburg 2 to 0. This was the only win of the season, but many of the games had heartbreaking scores.

Even though the girls didn't have a winning season, they all have high hopes for the future, especially next year, since the whole varsity team will be returning.

Eleven are attending Hockey Camp this August in Pennsylvania and next year the John Marshall girls' varsity hockey team expects to have a superb team.

GIRLS' BASKET BALL

Miss McKenney had a big job getting the team reorganized for the 1954-55 season, three starting forwards having graduated.

Co-Captain Audrey Lowery was backed up by Billie Daniels, Jeannette Talbot, Pat Southworth and Brenda Fisher at the forward positions. Mickey Gale, returning letterman, led the guards, along with Eileen Owen, Jeanette Barnhill and Bobbie Washburn.

The Justices opened their season with a 42-29 loss to a strong St. Gertrude team in a practice game.

Manchester invaded our courts with a fast team, and beat us 40-22 in a non-league.

The first league game was at St. Gertrude's, and they again defeated us 53-25, in almost a replay of the first game.

The Hopewell team was no match for our girls, who easily won 48-21.

By this time, Miss McKenney's team was showing much improvement. They faced an always consistent St. Catherine team and lost by only one point, after battling all the way. The next game with Freeman turned the same way, with one point the deciding factor.

Because of unfortunate circumstances, some of the varsity players were not able to play the last two games of the season. Norma Foster and Helen Campbell moved from the junior varsity to play forward for the varsity.

The junior varsity, led by co-captains Carolyn Brown and Sandy Weeks, won seven games against only one loss.

Every Tuesday evening during the past summer, you would have been sure to find the Justice cheerleaders practicing cheers at Hotchkiss Field. This was done to prepare for the football season and to teach the cheers to the eight newcomers to the squad.

When school opened in September, the cheerleaders ushered the new students through the halls of John Marshall for the first time and taught them some school yells.

Not only did the squad cheer for the football and basketball games, but they participated in the Tobacco Festival Parade. The members who were seniors cheered for the Community Chest luncheon. Another activity of the cheerleaders was their participation in all pep rallies.

We hope that the efforts of the cheerleaders not only promoted school spirit to encourage the teams, but, also, encouraged all students in maintaining the high standards and the ideals of loyal Marshallites.

"To Marshall reared—the great, the good, the wise;
Born for all ages, honored in all skies;
His was the fame to mortals rarely given,
Begun on earth, but fixed in aim on heaven.
Genius, and learning, and consummate skill,
Moulding each thought, obedient to the will;
Affections pure, as e'er warmed human breast,
And love, in blessing others, doubly blest;
Virtue unspotted, uncorrupted truth,
Gentle in age, and beautiful in youth;—
These were his bright possessions. These had power.
Are these all perished? No! but snatched from time,
To bloom afresh in yonder sphere sublime.
Kind was the doom (the fruit was ripe) to die,
Mortal is clothed with immortality."

Southern States Cooperative Alumni Chapter of John Marshall High School

Jayem alumni at Southern States Cooperative, Inc. proved that they haven't lost their school spirit by contributing to the ad pictured above.

Phyllis Cordle, '54, Barbara Nichols, '52, and Bobby Johnson, '52, launched an office-wide campaign to get the alumni ad from Southern States for The Marshallite.

The response was overwhelming. Nearly 50 people contributed to the fund, giving Southern States a page of copy space in The Marshallite.

Mrs. Violet Boykin, a 1919 grad who has been at Southern States for 11 years, gave readily to the Marshallite fund. "I thought it was real nice," she stated. Mrs. Boykin's children also went to Jayem. She said the school is much the same now as it was when she went there.

Smiling pleasantly, she remarked that she always tries to defend her alma mater, especially against the blows the Jeffs at Southern States administer.

Connie Agnew, '50, a bookkeeper, is typical of the young Marshallites at Southern States. While at Jayem, Connie was a member of the Literary Society, G. A. A., Christian Youth League, and the school's hockey, basketball, and tennis teams.

As an alumna, she attends John Marshall's football and basketball games, and the operettas. The active girl spends most of her spare time skating at Richmond's arena. She is also a member of the Southern States basketball team and choir.

Connie is taking a course in accounting at the University of Richmond's night school of business. Recently she has served on the jury at the Federal District Court.

Mr. Charles F. Bahen, manager of the Affiliate Accounting Department, became a Jayem alumnus in 1933. While attending school, he was a member of the Cadet Corps, the Don Cassack Club, the Harwood Literary Society, the Non-Com Club, and the Athletic Association. He is now a member of the Southern States bowling team.

A graduate of 1932, Mr. Eddie McKenna is now manager of the Stock Records Department and is also a bowling team member.

While at John Marshall, Mrs. Emma Kay was a member of The Marshallite staff, the Executive Committee of the Student Association, and the National Honor Society. Graduating in 1946, she was also president of the French Club, secretary of the senior class, president of Quill and Scroll, and the sponsor of the Band. She is now the technician in the seed lab at Southern States.

James Hart, '53, a member of the Southern States Mailing Department, was captain of the 1st battalion staff at Jayem. He is married to Pat Schwartz, who also graduated in '53.

Fulfilling An Obligation

With fidelity to the principles of the outstanding Virginians who founded Atlantic Life in 1900, it is the Company's continuing purpose:

To provide the security of life insurance at the lowest guaranteed cost.

To strive constantly to raise the standards of service and efficiency.

To provide career opportunities for those who are qualified for Home Office positions and professional sales work.

And to share through the efforts of the field organization in the progress of the communities in which we operate.

● Opportunities for success in today's world are unlimited, provided you'll plan it . . . with personal thrift. Having money for advanced training—or as a stake in your own business—is possible for you to achieve. From this day forward save a part of all you earn . . . and let those dollars, in turn, work for you.

As a Specialized Savings Association, we welcome savings accounts of all sizes. You'll find our liberal earnings help savings grow quickly, encouraging you to save more. Thrift is not the only way to success, but it's the surest way!

"Education for all the people is America's noblest contribution to civilization."

The Mark of A Champion . . .

WHEN a young man can face the business world with the same undaunted courage that he bucks the line in football, and can take the bumps that inevitably will come to him in business, and can keep his fighting spirit and keep smiling . . . then he has the mark of a champion. The world needs young men like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such men, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. It's a business of opportunity for young men of ambition and vision.

SAVING

makes it possible

There's more to Saving . . . than Money! When you save . . . seek more than a depository for Money.

YOU NEED SAFETY. Funds are safeguarded by the careful reinvestment in monthly repayable first mortgage loans on homes . . . time-proved one of the most stable securities known.

YOU WANT PROFIT. With us earnings are paid on the entire balance of your Savings Account twice-yearly at an above-average rate of return.

YOU'LL LIKE CONVENIENCE. You may add any amount to your account at any time . . . in person or by mail. It is simple to open an account.

YOU'LL ENJOY FRIENDLINESS. Prompt, courteous service awaits you. As a specialized Savings Association, your account with us in the "ALL important business."
